

BUMPED OFF! REVIEWS.

Bumped Off! John McDermott (2003) (8,410 words)

We really enjoyed this one, we played the parts very over the top and some of our audience commented it that it was one of the funniest of the scripts we had done. Thank you. This kind of format works very well for us, please keep writing more!!
Christine Langford, Paddock Wood Players, The Magpies, Kent.

The murder mystery farce was the best we have performed. The actors and the audience had a good laugh, especially with all the different accents! It was an extremely enjoyable night and the church restoration fund was greatly helped.
Mrs Shirley Watkins, Women's Guild, Our Lady Star of the Sea, Porthcawl.

Another successful evening to raise funds for the church. No improvements required, very good format!"
Josie Gliddon, Tiverton Dramatic Society.

Another excellent evening enjoyed by all.
Andrea Gosslin, Honley Players A.D.S.

We loved the humour in Bumped Off; so did the audience.
Anne Williams, Llanfairfechan Community Players.
