Murder Backstage – Chris McDermott (1998) 7,622 words

Successful and enjoyable evening. Thanks!
Simon Wilson, Arrow Players, Pinner, Middlesex.

The play was very good. We will again continue to purchase your excellent scripts. Thank you for your time and effort. The audience really enjoyed the play.
Kevin Harris, Kesteven and Sleaford High School, Lincs..

The over-the-top characters in this made it more fun to perform as did the setting and the story.
Mike Cooper, Catsfield Amateur Dramatic Society, Battle, East Sussex.

Good value yet again.
Barry Burdett, Queen Elizabeth Grammar School, Ashbourne, Derbys..

It was hilarious. We had tremendous fun. It was superb.
Mike Howe, Friends of St. Agnes Church, Port Talbot.

It was a good evening.
Anne Hayes, St Herberts A.D.E.S., Chadderton, Oldham.

It was an absolute hoot! Loved it! I have never seen people laugh so much in their lives and that was just in rehearsal!
Barbara Scully, Colchester Operatic Society.

The evening itself was another huge success. Annual camp is a two week event and the whole thing is organised within that two weeks. Its amazing how props can be acquired at such short notice! As with the first play (Murder and the Manor), I was not short on volunteers to act. Even the commanding officer was in this one! I can see that we will certainly be putting on another play in the future.
